Dedication

We of the yearbook staff wish to dedicate this publication to a hard-working and inspirational individual who has attempted to teach the students of Filer High School some of the great lessons that we will need in later life. This individual will probably never realize the payment of the great debt which we students owe him. The best way to demonstrate our sincere gratitude to him is to become devout in our attempts to emulate him.

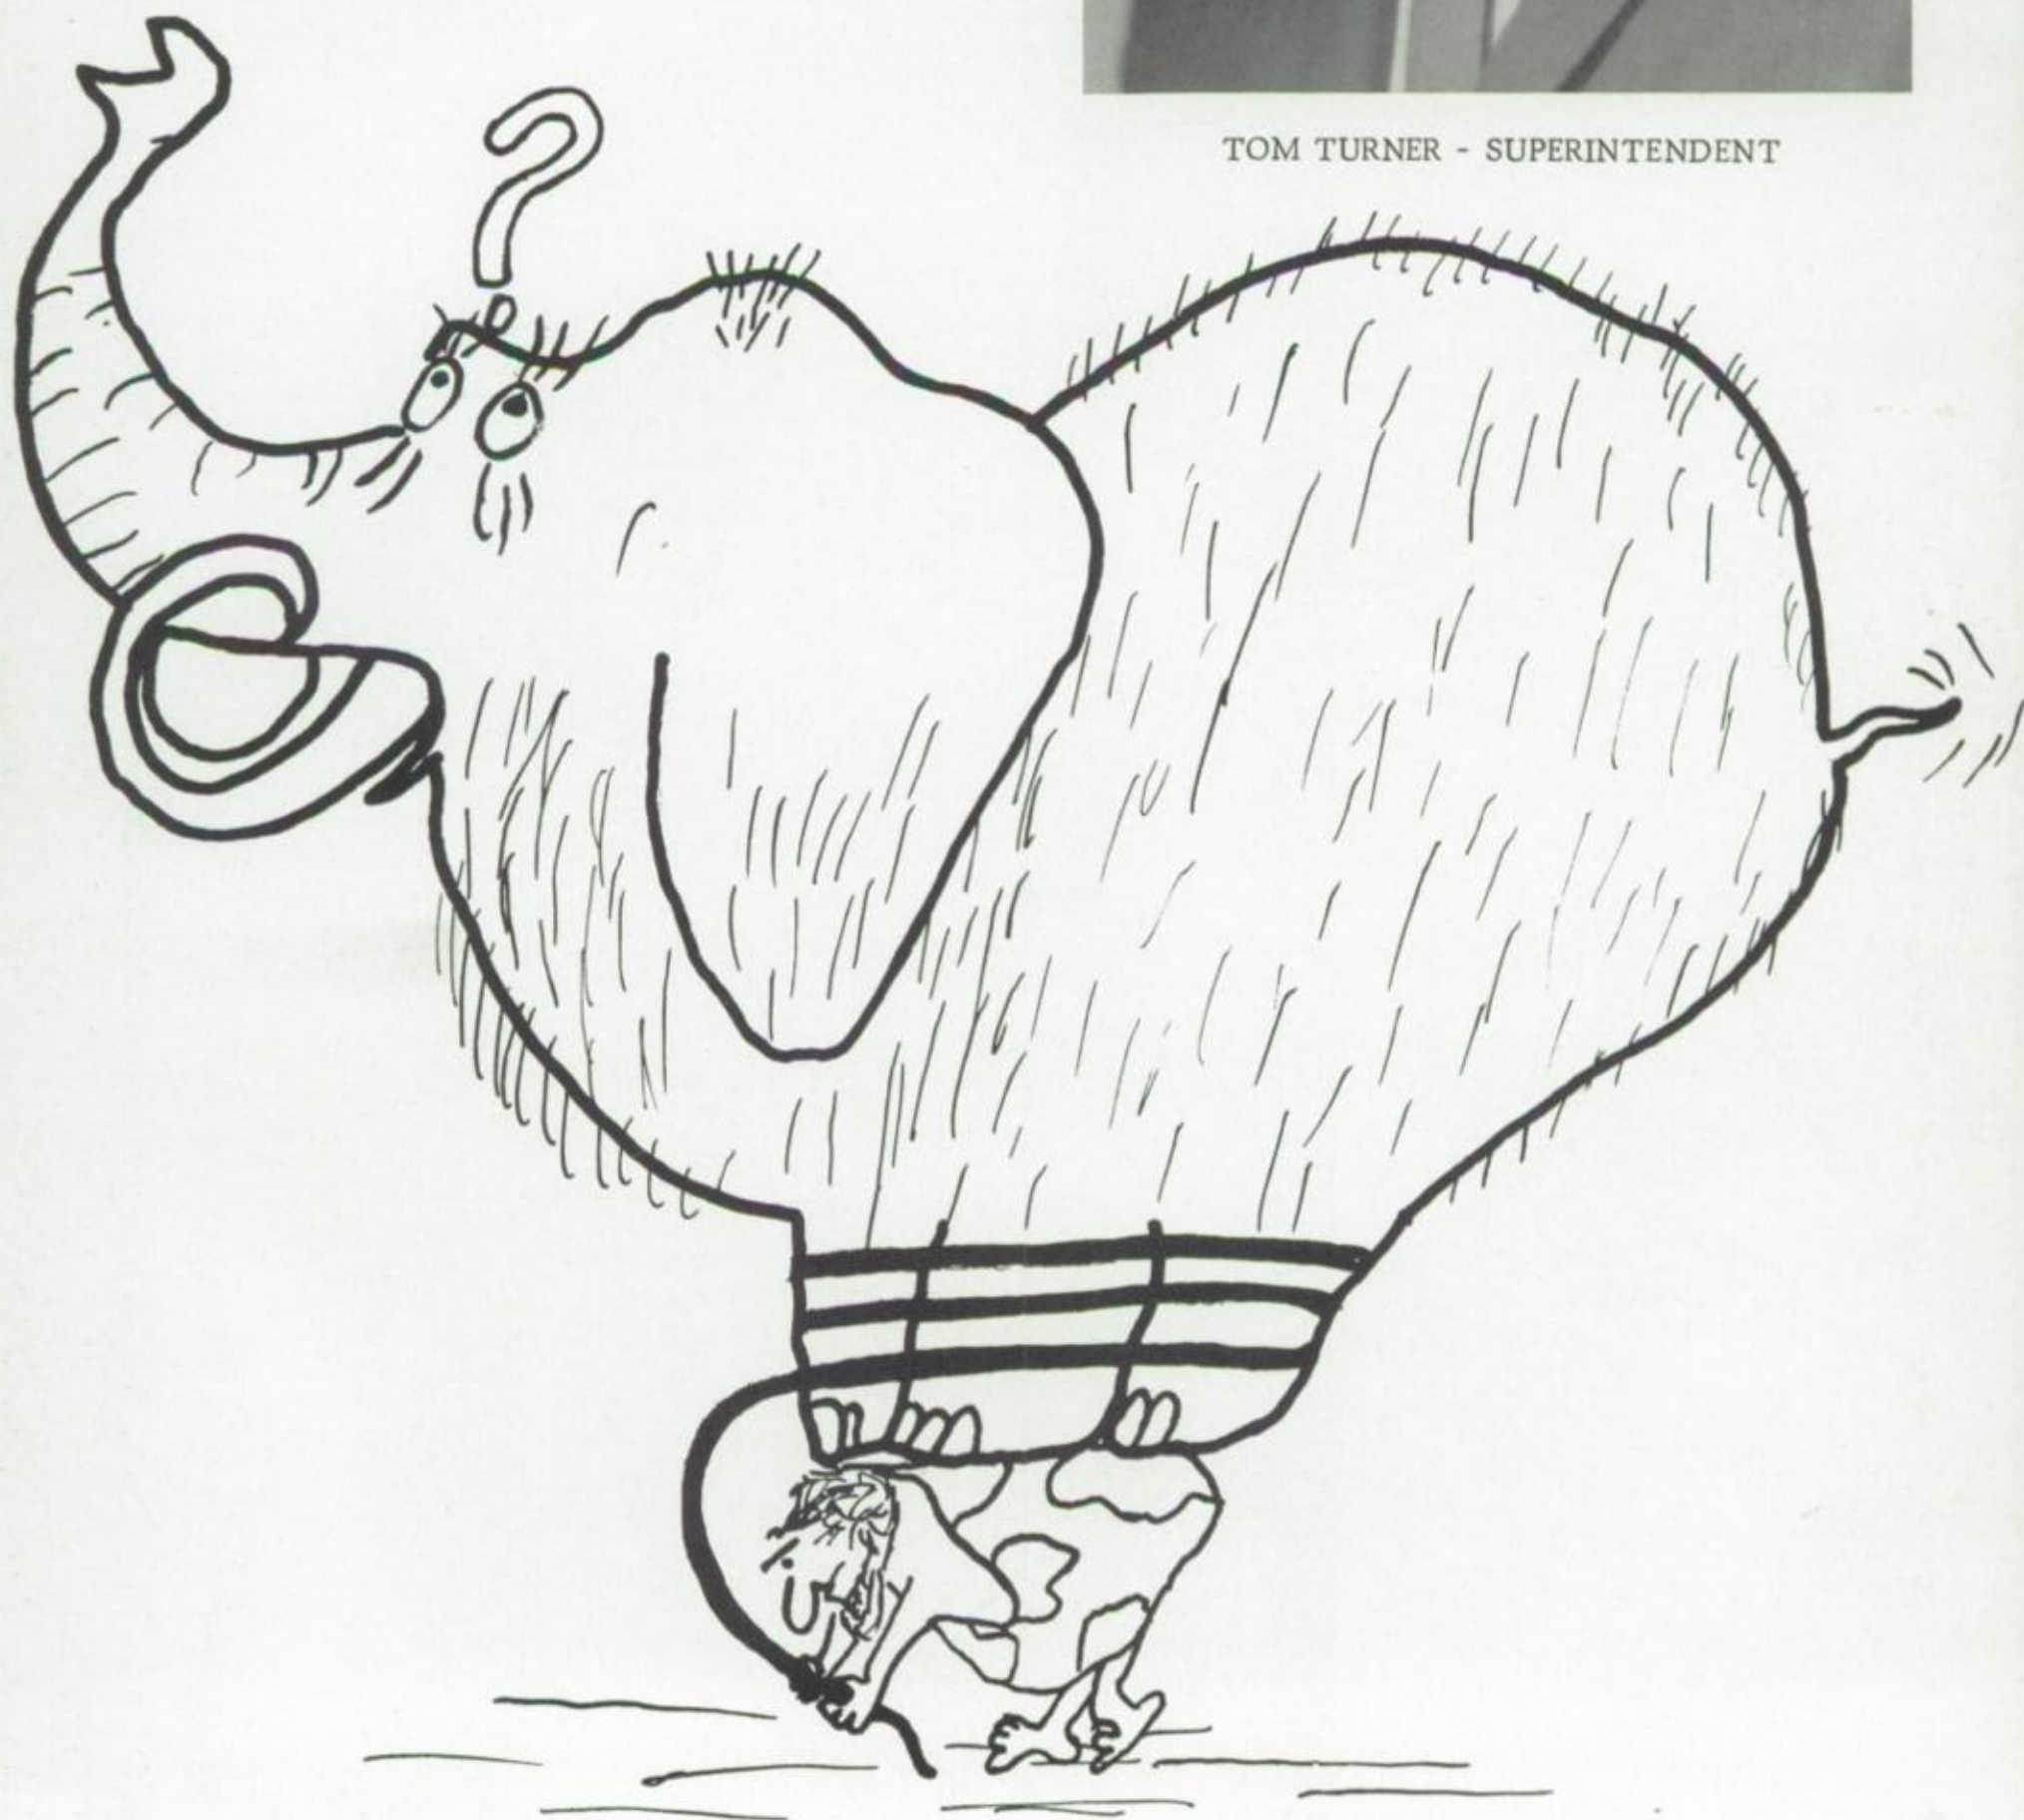

This individual has strived to show his pupils the correct road to follow. Sometimes that road becomes rough and sometimes it is smooth. He has taught us how to pick ourselves up each time we fall and to analyze what was responsible for that fall, allowing it never to happen again.

Let us here extend our sincere appreciation to that person who has loaned us his helping hand on our long struggle to adulthood - our principal, Mr. Arthur Chatburn.

Baccalaureate

Baccalaureate was held for the seniors on May 10, 1964. Miss Wilson delivered the sermon to the graduating class. She told us that fear is courage that has said its prayers and that we should have a firm faith in God. Miss Wilson inspired every senior to follow, to the best of his ability, the path he really wants to take in life.

Miss Wilson, speaker, is the Dean of Women at Northwest Nazarene College.

Gary Isom - Salutatorian

The graduation was held on May 13, 1964 in the Gymnasium. The class colors were red and white and the flower was a carnation. The seniors all received their diplomas and marched, for the last time, out of the gym, to the strains of the school's alma mater.

With Respect and Admiration—

Mrs. Leroy Fleenor

This year will see the graduation of a very special senior from our high school - Mrs. Leroy (Dowd) Fleenor - who has waited sixteen years for this occasion.

Maurice Dowd attended the Hollister High School until 1948 when, as a junior, she married Mr. Leroy Fleenor. During a span of years from 1948 until 1963, they were blessed with five children - all girls. Due to Mr. Turner's encouragement, Mrs. Fleenor completed her qualifications for graduation and this year will proudly receive her diploma. Her oldest daughter will, incidentally, have completed the seventh grade this year.

Congratulations for your achievement, Mrs. Fleenor, and best wishes from your classmates.

SENIOR CHIPPINGS

Class Will

- I, John Allen, do will and bequeath my ability to play the trumpet to the rest of the section in hopes they use it.
- I, Gary Aufderheide, do will and bequeath my 51 Ford Jitney to the younger generation that they may have as much fun with it as I did. Especially to Larry Hepworth.
- I, Tom Barton, do will and bequeath all the fun of New Year's Eve to the prudes among us.
- We, Larry Baxter, Jay Hauser, Gary Isom, do will and bequeath our famous hypothesis, "anything that can't be seen with a microscope isn't there", to the progressive thinkers in the junior class which will explain all the unanswered questions about the Chemical Bond Approach (CBA) in Chemistry II.
- I, Barbara Brown, do will and bequeath the ability to get six people and two cans of paint in the front of an El Camino to anyone who wants to try.
- I, Bruce Brown, do will and bequeath one spare out-house to the Jr. Class in hopes they use it as good as we did.
- I, Charles Chambers, do will and bequeath the ability to get out of High School in 4 years to Ron Theener, for I think he wants out of this --- school as bad as I do.
- I, Marilyn Chandler, do will and bequeath my torn stocking to anyone who likes spots on their legs.
- I, Sandra Clough, do will and bequeath my ability to get on the good side of Mrs. Roland to Merry Ann Molone.
- I, Gayle Cobb, do will and bequeath my ability to have problems with the opposite sex to Rita Moore in hopes she uses it better than I did.
- I, Marva Couger, do will and bequeath all my paint brushes and fun I've had in school to Linda A., Bonnie F. and Joyce F. in hopes they get more out of school than I did.
- I, Sharon Cranmer, do will and bequeath all the fun I've had to Phyllis Ordeze in the hopes that she will put her time to better use than I and not have to work so hard at the end to stay on the N.H.S.
- I, Mike Cunningham, do will and bequeath one 61 Olds to Rick Sturgill and Hazel Hunt in hopes they find out what a real car is like.
- I, Ronald Davis, do will and bequeath, all my sleeping habits to Danny Carter in hopes that he will carry them out in later years.
- I, Carolyn Denton, do will and bequeath the fun of taking football boys to Buhl on Halloween night in the back of a pickup---to any Jr. girls who don't mind having a window broken.
- I, Jim DeVall, do will and bequeath all my good times but bad grades to any underclassman that doesn't study.
- I, Delbert Ericson, do will and bequeath all the stammering and stuttering in my pep talks to Lloyd Garey in hopes that he may someday give one.
- I, Steven Fields, do will and bequeath the Chemistry II class and Mrs. Whitesides to any junior stupid enough to take them.
- I, Dean Fischer, do will and bequeath all the tomatoes, potatoes, dirt clods and rocks to the brave Jr. class in hopes they are better shots than we were on Halloween.
- I, Eileen Ford, do will and bequeath the double French horn to Cheryl Ingle.
- I, Terry Gartner, do will and bequeath all my bad grades in high school to anyone who doesn't want to graduate.
- I, Shirley Greene, do will and bequeath to Ann Hasch and Linda Adam the ability to have more will power to stay away from parties than I had in hopes that it does them more good than it did me.
- We, Gerald Hays and John Pitts, do will and bequeath happily the Chemical Bond Approach (CBA) to all our enemies.
- I, Conrad Honstein, do will and bequeath all my grades to Danny Gasper in hopes that he won't find them on his report cards.
- I, Harold R. Houser, do will and bequeath my friendship with Delbert Ericson to Penny Ward.
- I, Marilyn Humphries, do will and bequeath all the good times I have had painting F.H.S. "64" to Bonnie Flora.
- I, Roger Jones, do will and bequeath my place on the wrestling team to anyone that can stay on a diet long enough to keep it.
- We, Ruth Koinzan and Janet Lierman, do will and bequeath our ability to go to lunch early to whoever works in the library third period.
- I, Terry Kulik, do will and bequeath my locker to Ronnie Theener in hopes that he will keep it as clean as I have.

- I, Rosemary Lassen, do will and bequeath Chemistry II to Patricia Lanting if Chemistry I doesn't get her first.
- We, Carla Losser and Judy Meyer, do will and bequeath all the rowdy times we've had these past years at Filer to Faye Roesler and Diane Aufderheide in hopes they'll have as much fun as we did.
- I, Larry McCauly, do will and bequeath all the experiences I have had stealing watermelons and not getting shot at to anyone who is dumb enough to try it.
- I, Les Mai, do will and bequeath all my experiences and troubles to Tim Graves and my brothers Dennis and John.
- I, Farrellee Moughan, do will and bequeath my old car to my brother in hopes that he will trade it in on a better one.
- I, Anna Meyer, do will and bequeath good ole Filer High School and everything within to Paulette Patterson and Phyllis Brake.
- I, Dave Montgomery, do will and bequeath my ability to sleep in Mr. Moran's class to Hazel Hunt and John Baker in hopes that they won't get caught.
- I, Red Montgomery, do will and bequeath my duck decoys to Larry Hepworth so that he will keep his mind off girls and keep it on duck hunting.
- I, Edna Negelein, do will and bequeath all of the fun I have had to all students coming up through high school.
- I, Ken Nielsen, do will and bequeath the memories of our "wild parties" to the Jr. Class, especially (L.H.&.C.A.) in hopes that they will carry out the fine Tradition.
- I, Steve Parish, do will and bequeath the fun I had arguing with Mrs. Whitesides and Mr. Moran to anyone who thinks they want it.
- I, Carolyn Park, do will and bequeath all of the fun I've had in High School to Beverly hoping that she will have as much fun as I have had.
- I, Janie Pierce, do will and bequeath our "community crutches" to Camille Ramsey in hopes that she will not have to start her Senior year on them as I did.
- I, Charles Pubanz, do will and bequeath my cut-down jalopies to anyone who needs scars from running through barb-wire fences.
- I, Leroy Rathbun, do will and bequeath all my luck to Ron and Faye to drive my car with the "lakes" open and without getting caught.
- I, Lyle Riekenberg, do will and bequeath all the opportunities here to increase educational knowledge to anyone who will use it to his best ability.
- I, Robert Roy, do will and bequeath anything I have to anyone who will take it.
- I, Jennie Rutherford, do will and bequeath all my good times in band and all the fun on band tours to Delores Butts in the hope that she will enjoy them as much as I did.
- I, Alice Schiffler, do will and bequeath my ability to just barely get to school on time every morning to Judy Schiffler and Virginia Slatter.
- I, Linda Shaff, do will and bequeath the Nitro-glycerin formula to all juniors taking CBA in Chemistry II next year so they can drop it during those frustrating moments.
- I, Carol Shields, do will and bequeath the ability to take 3 hours to write a 30 minute council meeting to next year's Student Body Secretary.
- I, Charles Sierer, do will and bequeath our sax section to Pat Land all the fun I've had in Sr. Band to Jerry and Alvin Allen.
- I, Kathy Sierer, do will and bequeath my ability to marry young to anyone who can stand the shock.
- I, Eugene Starr, do will and bequeath my "55" Stude to anyone who has a pocketbook large enough to cover the expense of gasoline and tires.
- I, Gordon Storrs, do will and bequeath my ability to do everything wrong to Tami Thornton in hopes that she will overcome this curse.
- I, Jerry Tegan, do will and bequeath my living quarters in Mr. Chatburn's office to Larry and Tim.
- I, Kenny White, being of sound mind and body do will and bequeath my car to the Smithsonian Institute while it is in good condition.

Class History

The time is two million B.C. and everything is peaceful in Stoneburg except for that rockin' class of '64.

Heat caveman Gary Isom, who sent chief hunters Harold Houser, Dave Montgomery, and Jay Houser for the next month's dinosaur, was pacing the floor and worrying how to beat Steve Annis for Mayor of Stoneburg. Meanwhile Delbert Ericson, Larry Baxter, and Bruce Brown-running like track stars-were busy chasing the town beauties Carolyn Park, Marilyn Hunphries, and Farallee Maughan.

Just then, Terry Kulik and Mike Cunningham, paper boys for the local "Chippers Gazette", arrived with the morning news published by Marva Cougar and Anna Meyer, editor-with Gerald Hayes, Dean Fischer, Jennie Lou Rutherford, and Shirley Greene as head reporters. Chipped in bold letters across the first slate were the words- BOXING TONIGHT AT CAVEHILL HALL- Les Mai and Red Montgomery contenders.

The managers, Terry Gartner and Robert Roy, predict an exciting fight. Anyone wishing to place a bet contact Edna Negelein, Lyle Riekenberg, Marie Ryals, or Roger Jones.

Next Friday night a concert will be presented in the Saber Tooth Auditorium. World Famous musicians including; John Allen, trumpeter; Carla Losser, mezzo soprano; Judy Meyer, alto; Rosemary Lassen, clarinet; Charles Sierer, sax; Eileen Ford, french horn; Ken Neilson and Ron Davis, tenors; and Alice Schiffler, piano will be the featured stars. Also present will be Carolyn Denton, Miss Dinnyland, and winners of the alley awards for best actor and actress, Gordan Storrs and Gayle Cobb, Noble Prize Winners John Pitts and Ruth Koinzan, and Noted Authors Conrad Honstein and Maureen Fleenor.

A style show will be presented by the local "Cave Makers Club". Men and women's clothes in the new spring fashion will be shown. Hairstyles and fashions will be by the famous designers Jerry Tegan and Charles Chambers. Models for the show will be Janie Pierce, Steve Parish, Steve Fields, Barbara Brown, Marilyn Chandler, Larry McCauley, Janet Lierman, and Sharon Cranmer. Master of Ceremonies will be Richie Young who will name the models of the year. Last year's models of the year, Linda Shaff and Charles Pubanz will crown the winners. Judges will be Kenny White, Eugene Starr, Carol Shields, and Kathy Sierer.

Appreciation

The yearbook staff wishes to extend its sincere appreciation to all those who have made this year's publication possible--a cooperating faculty and administration, a hard-working and patient advisor, and the Taylor Publishing Company.
